On Friday 13th September in Broughton Village Hall the Parish of Upper Tweeddale is showing the first of a pilot programme of three films that have been chosen to provoke thought and discussion.

This is a family friendly film starting at 7.30pm and lasting about 100 minutes, and it will be followed by an opportunity to share our thoughts and feelings about the film in a facilitated discussion lasting about 30 minutes.

The licence we have to show this film prevents us from publishing the name of the film in our advertising outside of the venue.

You can go to www.uppertweeddale.org.uk/films_that_make_you_think.asp to find out more about the program and there are links within that page which allow you to e-mail members of the organising team to find out more about the film itself. Or you can e-mail Neil Robinson (neil@glenholm.co.uk).

Everyone is welcome, the evening is FREE (donations are welcome) and light refreshments will be provided at the beginning.
