Anne Dawson, organist in Tweedsmuir and leader of Biggar singers is offering her services on the evening of Thursday 25th July to introduce the worship team to some new hymns.

The session will be held from 7pm in Carlops church and anyone from the congregations who is interested in broadening their singing experience is very welcome to join in for approximately an hour and a half of singing practice.

Mary Scott is holding a retrospective exhibition, Mary at 80. It opens next week in West Linton, at the old church hall.

She graduated from Edinburgh college of art and has continued to create and evolve her art ever since.

It's a celebration of her work over the last sixty years. All proceeds are going to a wonderful charity, Mary's Meals UK

There is a shop on redbubble where you can buy prints and t shirts etc... all profits will be added to the donation to Mary's Meals.

Giclee prints and select originals will be available to purchase at the exhibition. Every afternoon there is an opportunity (for a £5 donation) to meet the artist, and enjoy tea & cake with her.

Mary is so excited, she planned to do this in 2020, and of course covid got in the way. It's been a huge undertaking.

The exhibition is open daily from 26th July through 9th August.
